THE STAGEBENDERS

Abbott and Costello for the new millennium!

Winners of the MTV Comedy Challenge, The Stagebenders garner rave reviews where they regularly play to sell-out crowds all across America. In addition to their countless corporate shows, including AT&T, MCI, and Frito Lay, they are staples as headliners at Harrah's Las Vegas every Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Die-hard fans include: Geena Davis, The Kinks and the legendary Bud Friedman. (they are national regulars at the "Improv")

Various TV and film appearances include: ABC's "America's Funniest People," MTV's "The Jenny McCarthy Show" and the Coen Bros. produced "The Naked Man."

The Stagebenders have been featured in Esquire magazine and were requested by Jay Leno to appear on "The Tonight Show!"
